HARBOR SPRINGS HOSTS WATERFRONT WINE FESTIVAL THIS FRIDAY

Harbor Springs, MI – Scenic Michigan’s 5th Annual Waterfront Wine Festival will be held this coming Friday, June 25 on the waterfront in downtown Harbor Springs (5-8pm). The event benefits the operation of Scenic Michigan and the Harbor Springs Area Chamber of Commerce.

This year’s event has nearly doubled in size and has confirmed over a dozen purveyors of fine wines such as Fabiano Brothers, Bayside Beverage, and Washington Wines Limited. For the first time ever, the festival will feature a Michigan Wine area devoted to promoting Michigan based vineyards such as L. Mawby, Shady Lane and Mackinaw Trail Winery.

The number of food vendors has also grown from year’s past and includes samplings by Stafford’s Pier Restaurant, Fustini’s Oils, Cornichons, and the Good Hart General Store.

The festival is proud to boast live music by local jazz legends, the John Driscoll Ensemble. Renowned impressionist Trisha Witty will be on hand selling signed, numbered fine art prints of her painting, “Fruits of the Leelanau Peninsula”, a work created for the 2010 festival. A raffle event benefitting Scenic Michigan will feature an all-inclusive wine-country trip to the Napa/Sonoma area.

Tickets to the event are $20 in advance and $25 at the event. Tickets are available at Stafford’s Pier Restaurant and the Harbor Springs Area Chamber of Commerce in Harbor Springs, at Symons General Store in Petoskey, over the phone at 231-347-4929 and online at www.waterfrontwine.org.

The 5th Annual Waterfront Wine Festival is sponsored by Fernelius Toyota of Cheboygan, Wentworth Builders of Harbor Springs, and the Cardiac and Vascular Research Center of Northern Michigan, located in Petoskey. CMU Public Broadcasting is the official media partner.
